#CookTogether

Our #CookTogether campaign, in partnership with Nestlé for Healthier Kids, aims to encourage families to #CookTogether at weekends.

Working with your child(ren) to create tasty meals is not only good for their independence and learning around healthy eating, it can also be an incredibly rewarding and bonding experience. Whether you're teaching basic skills to them, or mastering new skills together; it's all about the team work.

We've collated some fun, simple recipes for you and your child(ren) to try out at home. Watch the videos, download the recipes ... and give it a go.
